

gently

fragrant

smothered

grunted

replied

belongings

pleaded

fleeing

something that has a pleasing smell you do something in a way that is careful and kind

a small, deep sound in your throat you cover something completely so that it has no air

the things that you own when you answer a question you are running away from something you beg someone for something

crave

correspond

you want something very badly you write a letter or an e-mail to someone