

January 3, 2007 - Happy New Year! Welcome Back!

~8 days left in this semester.~

You will need your purple book today,
and you will need your homework

Traditionally, people make resolutions for the new year, things they intend to do. Also traditionally, the huge majority give up on those resolutions within a few weeks.

Writing choice #1: What resolution have you or could you make for this new year that you have a good hope of keeping for the whole year? How will you work to keep it an active part of your life?

Writing choice #2: What do you think of the whole idea of resolutions? Do you think they are a good idea?

This is a serious-style writing prompt today.

Check homework - the two interviews. This is check point #1 of your research project. They MUST be done.

What did you learn about your family that was new information?

SSR - Library Journal #9 Due. We will get a quick stop in at the library tomorrow; we will go again next Tuesday.
