Journal - Open your journal and date the page:

We are half-way through this school year.

Has the time gone fast, or slow? What do you remember like it was yesterday? What seems like it was 100 years ago?

SSR

Research - the project information gathering continues in books and through the internet. We begin the outlining process Tuesday, so gather away!!

On Tuesday, have your notes from books and internet and your primary source materials with you.
