Old wives' tales: superstitions and ideas that are not based on science and fact, but on story and folk history

Is there one superstition that you actually kind of believe in?

Any remaining research reports and presentations?

If not turned in today, complete, it is a 0. No exceptions.

Poetry Voting Paragraph - turned in for grade

Adjective Worksheet - turned in for classwork grade

SSR - 10 min. Reminder: Library Journal #11 due next Tuesday.

Group novels - Do worksheet #1 individually. Meet in small groups and divide the rest of the book into 6 sections.

Make your reading contract. Those sections will be read and discussion and worksheets finished for them on the following dates: Feb 6, Feb. 9 Feb. 13, Feb. 15 , Feb. 20, Feb. 23(book completed). On meeting days, story will be discussed, worksheets turned in, reading contracts checked and initialed. Pop quizzes may be given on those days, also.

Any group member not participating fully in group work, and/or not meeting the deadlines, will be separated from the group and will do all the work individually in class or in after school sessions with me as monitor.
